

W. V. U. MEMORIAL

DRIVE WIDESPREAD

Fifteen Thousand Prominent West Virginians Will Take Part.

MORGANTOWN, June 23. — The organizing of fifteen thousand prominent men and women of the state for the West Virginia University Memorial Drive has begun in earnest. A memorial official is located in each of the six congressional districts of the state. The headquarters for these districts are Elkins, Morgantown, Wheeling, Parkersburg, Charleston and Bluefield.

The reports from the district managers are very encouraging, very little opposition having been met with. A local alumni organization in each district is being formed for the purpose of supporting the memorial movement, and as the graduates of the state university are everywhere leading citizens, the work that they will do will have a strong influence on the whole community.

In all of the big cities of the nation alumni of West Virginia University are being located and organized, and the plan is meeting with enthusiastic reception by each and every alumnus, no matter how far distant his present abode might be.

A luncheon banquet was held Wednesday evening in Washington, D. C. The Hon. Stuart F. Reed, congressman from West Virginia, was the principal speaker of the evening, and stirred his audience to a high emotional pitch when he pictured the lonely graves of the sons of West Virginia scattered about on foreign soil, and speaking as from the grave, he said, "Remember our sacrifices; we died that the living might benefit."

"If we do not build a memorial," said Congressman Reed, "that will benefit the living in the greatest way possible, we will have failed in our duty to the dead. I cannot think of a more fitting stamp of our appreciation to the boys who died for us than to erect a huge gymnasium and student social center upon the campus of West Virginia University."

Many slogans are received each day at the memorial headquarters, but the officials wish to again urge the people at large of this state to renew their efforts in submitting slogans for the campaign. The slogan contest which carries a first prize of $25 and a second prize of $10, does not close until July 4th. All slogans for the memorial should be addressed to Dr. Frank Butler Trotter, President, West Virginia University, Morgantown, W. Va.
